OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 12 January 1968

25X1 1. [] Spoke to Robert Dunne, Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee staff, advising him that the evaluation of the 25X1 [] identification card would be completed no later than Monday 25X1 and that probably on Monday [] would be in touch to review the matter with him. Mr. Dunne said that this would be fine.

25X1 2. [] Advised James Billey in Senator Milton Young's office that we had completed our review of the application of 25X1 [] for employment but had been unable to find a suitable opening. Mr. Billey thanked me and requested we follow with a routine close out letter.

25X1 4. [] Met with Senator J. W. Fulbright, with Carl Marcy present and reviewed the outline of the briefing scheduled for 23 January of Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Senator Fulbright made a number of suggestions basically cutting down on the hardware aspects and building up the political and particularly Communist China.
25X1 Details were furnished [] who will review them with DDI and []
25X1 []

I also raised with Senator Fulbright the question of a visit to the Agency and suggested a specific time. Senator Fulbright stated he would very much like to do this but did not think next week would be a good time.

25X1 6. [] Dave Brandwein, FMSAC, called to say that Charles Sheldon, Library of Congress, called him regarding an inquiry he had received from James Gehrig, Staff Director, Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee. Mr. Gehrig is interested in getting a translation of a press item concerning statements made by a Soviet cosmonaut to the effect that the Soviets were developing ten-man space ships that will go to Mars and Venus. Mr. Brandwein has determined that this is a precis of an article to be published in a Soviet magazine. He is interested in obtaining a translation of the precis, which will be forwarded to Mr. Sheldon for transmittal to Mr. Gehrig.

25X1 8. [] Talked with Mr. William Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, stating that the Director wished to pass on to Senator Russell the fact that Senator Fulbright has invited the Director to appear before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in executive session on 23 January to furnish a world roundup type of briefing. Mr. Darden was also advised that the Director wanted Senator Russell to know that the Director would be delighted to have Senator Russell visit the Agency. Mr. Darden stated he would be in touch with Senator Russell later in the day since the Chairman was in town.
